J. Frank Perry of Spaulding street returned this morning from a business visit to Boston.

Prof. Landi will give a violin solo and George Mackay will sing at Howland hall Tuesday evening.—adv.

George Gumla left the city this morning for Burlington, where he is passing the week end with friends.

Found—A sum of money found on the floor of one of the stores. Loser communicate with bookkeeper at Times office.—adv.

Do you wear a front-lace corset? So many women who demand comfort as the prime requisite in a corset wear a P. N., they are so easy to put on. Mrs. W. F. Shepard.

Concert and dance, Howland hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 15, under the patronage of the Young People's Dramatic society of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Carroll's orchestra. Concert at 8. Dancing at 8:30.—adv.

Don't forget to hear Dr. Madison Swadener and Hon. Malcolm R. Patterson, ex-governor of Tennessee, when they speak on "National Prohibition" in the Barre opera house Sunday afternoon, Feb. 20, at 2 o'clock. Reserve the date. Admission free.—adv.

Socialist locals, Italian, English and Finnish, will hold a benefit dance at the Socialist auditorium on Granite street Saturday, Feb. 12, for one of their comrades who has been sick for some time. The Montpelier Military band orchestra will donate their services. All proceeds will go to help our comrades.

Thus far the only firm in the Barre granite belt to reserve space on the convention floor of the National Retail Monument Dealers' association, whose annual meeting is to be held in Cleveland this year, is Phillips & Slack of Northfield. As a matter of fact, however, only a comparatively few manufacturers throughout the country have made their reservations yet, although it is stated that a number of Barre granite men plan to have their exhibits as usual at the national convention.

A group of five young ladies were responsible for a leap year dance held in the Gordon hall last evening. For once the ladies had the selection of partners, for with the exception of one or two "gentleman's choices" the dance was in accordance with leap year traditions and the gentlemen awaited an invitation to dance. No complaints were heard, however, and when the affair broke up at an early hour, all voted the party an immense success.

A final chapter in an enjoyable series of "45" tournaments between St. John's court, Catholic Order of Foresters, and division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, was added in the Knights of Columbus hall Thursday evening when the Foresters, losers in the series, entertained the Hibernians at a nine-course dinner. From the blue points down the card to the cigars, the dinner was a moving success. An interesting after-dinner program consisted of informal speech-making, singing, etc. Arthur J. Loran acted as toastmaster and among those who responded were A. H. Burke, who spoke for the vanquished Foresters, and P. J. Dunleavy, who paid gracious tribute to the "45" playing propitiously of his teammates.

On the eve of his departure for Belleville, N. J., where he is to assume the stewardship of Forest Hills country club near Newark, John Reid, for the past three years steward at the Vinetia club, was called to the club rooms last night and presented a gold watch and case, the gift of club members. The presentation speech was made by John W. Gordon and a feeling response was made by Mr. Reid, who was taken wholly by surprise. On the inside of the case the following inscription is to be engraved: "Presented to John Reid by Vinetia Club, Barre, Vt., 1916." Mr. Reid left on an early morning train for Bridgeport, Conn., to pass the week end with Mrs. Reid, who preceded him to Connecticut a few days ago, and will depart thence for New Jersey.

Miss Marion Cosgrove returned this afternoon to her home in Burlington, after passing a week with friends on Summer street.

Miss Inez Thurston of the east hill is critically ill with pneumonia at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nellie Holmes of North Montpelier.

The Altruism club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. S. Parks of King street. A program was given and refreshments served.

James Milne of Brooklyn street began work this morning for Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slayton as watchman in a stone shed on Burnham's meadow.

On account of weather conditions, the skating carnival to have been held last evening has been postponed until next Tuesday evening. Skating at the rink to-night as usual.

Bruno Mariotti, who was arrested by Officer A. B. Curtis on North Main street last night, pleaded guilty to a subsequent offense when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning. When asked for a disclosure, the respondent said he found a bottle of whiskey in a Burnham's meadow woodpile. The magistrate sentenced him to pay costs of $7.31 and to serve a sentence of 30 days in the county jail.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Granger of Williamstown were visitors in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snow of Hanover, N. H., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Clough of Tremont street.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: J. J. Sawyer of Burlington, H. E. Wheeler of Swanton, J. E. Engstrand of Lawrence, Mass., W. B. Miller of Rochester, N. H., C. R. Aiken of Derby and George Monette of Winoski.

A howling mob of young persons, fired into a fit of uncontrollable enthusiasm over Charlie Chaplin, the well known movie star, made life exciting, if not hazardous, for a vaudeville artist who "pulled" a few of the Chaplin stunts in the business section of Barre this noon. Off the stage the imitator of the English comedian is Harry Ingalls, who is appearing in a local theatre. Ingalls expects to go from Barre to St. Johnsbury and thence to Boston, where he is to be given a tryout by the Keystone Film company. Devotees of film comedy say that Ingalls is a very faithful interpreter of the Chaplin school of movie humor.

Negotiations carried on between a committee representing the First Baptist church and Rev. Bert J. Lehigh of Oswego, N. Y., who is a candidate for the pastorate of the local church to succeed Rev. George H. Holt, who has gone to Corona, Cal., are held in abeyance pending an effort to find a house in Barre for the clergyman and his family. A letter received by a member of the committee yesterday indicated that the Oswego minister is inclined to act favorably on the call, although he is anxious to have the assurance that a personage will be available should he decide to accept the call by March 1.

Special convocation of St. Aldemar commandery, No. 11, K. T., Monday evening, Feb. 14, at 7:30 o'clock. Work, temple degree. Per order E. C.

WEBSTERVILLE.

Funeral of Mathilda Lavolette held Friday Morning.

The funeral of Mathilda Lavolette, who died Wednesday morning at the home of her parents in Websterville after an illness with pneumonia, was held from the Catholic church Friday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Fr. Turcot officiating. The pupils of the Holy Ghost convent, where the girl had been a student, attended the service in a body, escorting the remains from the house to the church, where there was a large attendance. The bearers were Sylvia and Emile Lavolette, brothers of the deceased, Leon Madore and Louis Simoneau. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Don't fail to attend the concert and dance at Howland hall Tuesday, Feb. 15.—adv.

Silent tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln was paid to-day, the martyred president's natal day, by the display of flags, the observance in Barre being confined almost wholly to this significant means of recalling the great emancipator. From public buildings and a number of dwellings the flag was suspended and patriotic decorations were noted in several store windows. Some one called at city hall to borrow the national banner purchased by the city council last fall and then it was remembered that the flag was procured for the purpose of hoisting the colors over the entrance to the city building. So city hall attaches felt constrained to refuse the would-be borrower's request and a few moments afterward the flag appeared over the main entrance for the first time since its purchase.
